

Weekend at Kröller-Müller Museum and De Hoge Veluwe National Park and Paleis Het Loo

BRIDFAS cultural tour on Saturday/Sunday 9/10 April 2016

You are invited to join us for a weekend in The Netherlands – the highlight of which is the Kröller-Müller Museum at Otterlo and the Barbara Hepworth exhibition. It also contains the second largest collection of Van Goghs in the world, as well as other top works by Monet, Seurat, Picasso and Mondriaan and one of Europe's largest sculpture parks. A tour of Jachthuis Sint Hubertus is planned, fascinating former residence of Helen Kröller-Müller and her husband, whose life-long collection resides in the Museum. We will also visit Paleis Het Loo, the 300-year-old former residence of the Dutch Royal family and the 17th century garden.

The following provisional programme (which may be subject to one or two changes) is being finalised and we hope you will find it both interesting and highly enjoyable.
